

WRITEBOSTON/TIP SUMMER JOURNALISM INSTITUTE

Have you ever wanted to see your name in print? Do you wonder what it's like to be a newspaper reporter? Would you like to learn more about the city you live in? TiP (Teens in Print) may be for you.

The TiP summer program offers young people a fun way to improve writing, build journalism skills, and explore exciting places in Boston like Fenway Park and the Harbor Islands. You can also contribute articles to the September edition of Boston Teens in Print, the only citywide newspaper written for and by teens.

If you are registered with the BYF Hopeline, you may be eligible for paid opportunities. If you are not, you can still apply and receive community service hours. Go to the programs tab at bostontip.com to find the application.
